

TIM ENGLISH

Resident Director

For the past three years Tim has been Resident Director on the UK and European tours of the hugely successful award winning production, The Lion King. This complex show requires attention to detail to maintain the high standards set by Disney Theatrical Productions. Prior to The Lion King, for ten years, Tim was involved in casting, directing and maintaining four shows for Mark Bradley International including the award winning The Three Waiters. They performed all over the world at prestigious events and venues. Tim has also had a very successful career as a performer. Selected credits are listed below.
